Amir message

MESSAGE DE EID DE LA SIM

Le mois du Ramadan tire à sa fin. Ce mois est un mois de rapprochement avec le Créateur, de dévotion, de bénédiction, de sacrifice et de solidarité. Nous faisons des duas pour qu'Allah subhanhu wa taala accepte nos actions et nos efforts et nous gratifie du résultat tant escompté d'augmenter notre piété, notre crainte révérencielle de Lui.

Eid est la culmination de ce mois. EID MUBARAK à tous nos frères et sœurs de la communauté.

Eid est un jour de réjouissance, mais nous ressentons tous un sentiment mitigé quand nous constatons la souffrance, l'injustice, le chaos qui prévalent dans le monde actuel. Nos cœurs sont avec ceux qui souffrent.

Nous profitons de ce message pour vous rappeler que la Société Islamique de Maurice, SIM, œuvre pour le bien de la communauté depuis 50 ans déjà.

Les défis de l'époque ont évolué en augmentant pour devenir de plus en plus « challenging », ce qui a amené SIM à changer son fusil d'épaule au fil des ans. C'est une des raisons pour lesquelles ses membres se sont donnés pour mission de dénoncer les fléaux qui rongent notre société dite « moderne », autant que les comportements injustes, quels qu'ils soient, ici à l'île Maurice, mais aussi à travers le monde.

« Charité bien ordonnée commençant par soi », SIM a souvent alerté l'opinion du public mauricien quant aux dangers et méfaits de la drogue, de l'alcool et autres jeux du hasard, en organisant des causeries dans les villes et les villages, ou toutes les communautés confondues étaient conviées.

Mais notre action ne se limite pas seulement ici à Maurice. Nous essayons aussi d'aider nos voisins, Comoriens et Malgaches, quand ils sont en détresse et vivent des catastrophes naturelles grâce aux relations établies avec des organisations locales.

SIM est aussi concerné par ce qui se passe au niveau international, surtout là où l'indifférence et la désinformation priment. Nous avons organisé plusieurs campagnes pour dénoncer les injustices et l'oppression que subissent Musulmans et non-Musulmans en Palestine et ailleurs.

Nous comptons sur vous pour continuer à faire des duas et agir.

Merci.

SIM is ever-grateful to the team who has been working on the SIM Islamic calendar for the last several years. These persons are behind the scene but are performing a very important ongoing task for SIM. We also thank the sponsors for the calendar.

May Allah bless them and their families. Ameen.

e-SIM Department

The e-SIM department has been actively providing IT support facilities to the other SIM departments and in addition to that, the team is also working on different projects which will hopefully be value-added services. The three primary projects currently under way are as follows:

1) Revamping the SIM Website

This project is under fine tuning stage. We seize this opportunity to thank the different SIM departments for their inputs in order to provide the necessary content for the website.

2) SIM Online Library

The SIM Online Library is still a work in progress. We have met quite a few challenges and we are tackling them with the available resources. More information will be provided as soon as we have updates.

3) SIM e-Filing System

This is a new project aimed at providing a secure and hopefully simple way for document filing and sharing.

In addition to the above, the e-SIM team has been the linchpin to facilitating the online streaming of the different talks and conferences organized by SIM, especially during Ramadan. These talks are available on the SIM YouTube channel as well as on the SIM Facebook page.

Should you wish to provide suggestions or helping hand, do not hesitate to get in touch with us: esim@simoi.org

Report from Daawah Committee

As you were informed in the previous Simnews, we carried out a survey. The survey was conducted using Google Forms. Received 39 filled in forms. A summary of the survey, listing the major points: It reinforces the direction SIM took in its Daawah committee - Daawah to Muslims & non-Muslims (a reminder for the former; a call to worshipping Allah alone for the latter) & to combat social ills in the society at large. In terms of modality for Daawah work, both technological and face to face approach are welcomed. Using technological means, most people prefer YouTube, WhatsApp, Zoom and Facebook for Daawah work. YouTube seems to be the favourite means suggested by the responders and currently being used by them for acquiring knowledge. When asked specifically about Daawah in Covid situation, Zoom & social media (mainly recorded videos) are the two preferred means. Lectures, talks & videos are the modalities to disseminate knowledge as per responders. Note that only 3 persons felt that books are still a good way to disseminate knowledge. In terms of videos, the topic, the speaker and the duration are the main items which motivate them to watch videos. Topics such as Quran stories, Islamic lifestyles, and Seerah Hadith were the main ones which are of interest to people.

22 respondents were interested in dedicating some time for Daawah.

41% are of opinion that Daawah is not being done the right way in Mauritius

7 respondents are willing to join SIM for Daawah work

Debriefing Session on Ramadan Activities

Summary of important points in the debriefing session on Ramadan activities held: By Daawah committee, with e-SIM and multimedia representatives

1. Overall programmes conducted were interesting and nicely presented (Zakaat virtual live Talks, parenting virtual live sessions, Daawah video clips, MBC programmes, WIM Zoom live talks, talks in masaajids)

2. There was a renewed interest from muttawallis of masaajids in our talks in the targeted masaajids; some have offered us to give more talks after Ramadan

3. Positive feedback from people towards SIM effort to broadcast several programmes in Ramadan

4. Difficulties /challenges:

(a) Logistics of multimedia to be improved; Shura to vet a sum of money to upgrade existing system.

(b) May need reconsider the approach to the zakaat virtual talks since audience was poor.

(c) circulation of SIM events on Simnews whatsApp groups was inadequate.

(d) Some resource persons as speakers lack public speaking skills in delivering online talks. Training to be organised.

(e) A serious/reliable Multimedia technical person as support for the various tasks to give the necessary commitment is required.

(f) The videos done lack graphics and effects. Planning and preparation needed.

(g) Many of the virtual talks received few views.

5. Actions proposed:

(a) SIMSED plan to do regular 5mins videos on a specific theme with the support of multimedia dept; Recording sessions on drug addiction.

(b) Talks in masaajids to be planned, especially where we have received invitation to deliver talks.

(c) People within and around SIM who can deliver talks should be shortlisted and requested to give SIM the required support.

(d) A training on public speaking has to be organized.

(e) planning for next year Ramadan events has to be done very early on, especially WQD and Al Quds Day since these two events were not done.

(f) a summarized form of a video to be prepared and posted which will display important sections of the whole parenting sessions; same can be done with Khutba Reduit Masjid (people don't have to listen to the whole talks).

- (g) Talks to be done in masaajids have to be recorded every time and a summarized form displayed on our website /YouTube channel.
- (h) Events done virtually and physically should be complementary.

- (n) A Simnews bulletin for public (at least 2 pages).
- (o) Marketing strategy is important; a budget has to be earmarked.
- (p) A survey of SIM members to see their expectations.

Iftaar With Non-Muslims

On 23rd April, Masjid Redit was able to renew its friendship with non Muslims in the neighborhood via its yearly iftaar gathering. This was long awaited since such an event could not be held for the past 2 years due to COVID-19 sanitary restrictions. A soothing recitation of the Quran in the beautiful voice of our little sister Huda Ozeer opened the ceremony. Next on the list was Sr. Maryam Jeetoo who elaborated on the six pillars of faith followed by Sr. Neisha Goolamhossen's expose on the month of Ramadan. Around 40 persons were able to attend the function and were given the opportunity to voice out their queries on Islam. As always, Br. Fouad Assotally courteously responded to their queries. Also, we had displayed the Holy Quran in different languages for the purpose of bringing awareness about the message found therein. At some point in time, Br. Mohsen Jeetoo lighted the atmosphere through a small quiz game. Gifts were then handed to those who answered correctly. For iftaar time, Muslims and non muslims sat on the floor shoulder to shoulder to enjoy the blessed moment and our guests had the occasion to witness maghrib swalaat. Afterwards, there was a collation and the program ended with the unavoidable briani as take-away.

Tarbiya

During the past 2 years, with the Covid-19 pandemic and government restrictions, the tarbiyyah committee decided to move online and carry the tarbiyyah sessions via the zoom platform.

Alhamdulillah, the online sessions were quite successful with some sessions nearing 100 participants. With themes ranging from "Married Life", "Honesty, Integrity and Good Governance", "Le Musulman face aux épreuves" to "Welcoming Ramadan", we were able to keep going despite the challenges faced with spreading the message digitally.

On Saturday 11th June 2022, we were able to move our tarbiyyah session back to physical sessions with approximately 25 participants alhamdulillah. Due to restrictions we are still forced to restrict the total number of participants to 50 and registration is on a first come first served basis. Our next tarbiyyah session will be held on 09th July 2022 Insha allah at IIET.

Young Muslimah

The Yma resumed its activities on the 26th of March with a one day workshop organised at IJET from 9.00 to 15.00.

The girls had an insight into 'choosing the right role model', followed by several activities like treasure hunt and drama among others.

Alhamdulillah, the number of participants was around 17 and we received positive feedbacks.

WIM

This year WIM has delivered physical talks in three places, namely, Bon Accueil, Camp Chapelon and Tyack.

These talks were carried out by Sister Nazeera and Sister Sameera.

Moreover, for the first time WIM held an online event. It was a Ramadan Program on Zoom organized by Sister Mushurda, Sister Sameera, Sister Yasmine Jeetoo and Sister Farah.

Alhamdulillah we received positive feedback. The talks are accessible on SIM's YouTube channel.

To celebrate Eid, WIM had a lunch at IJET on the 14/6 for compliant members and some YMa sisters.

SIM Kids Club

With the Covid-19 pandemic, the SIM Kids Club which catered for 49 kids of Grade 1-6, had to adapt itself in order to maintain connection with its cuties. In that context, a brief monthly online session was conducted via zoom platform where the topic was mainly story telling on prophets highlighting various Islamic values.

Moreover, the virtual sessions were thereafter extended to more kids as a special edition from January 2022 to March 2022.

With the Covid-19 pandemic situation abating, Kids Club is again going physical at IET Moka as from 18th June 2022 till December 2022.

SIM Teens Club

The SIM Teens club resumed its activities on the 5th March 2022. We had the pleasure to do the award ceremony for the previous cohort who had their exams in October 2021. On the same occasion, we launched our registration for new participants who wanted to embark for the program and also for our ancient participants who wanted to continue the journey with us.

Our new team who volunteered to help the Teens Club had worked on a new calendar for this year.

we had organised an Eid party with the participants to share the essence of Eid and reflect over the blessings of the past month of Ramadan.

This month we brought the participants to the Pamplemousse Botanical Garden to raise their awareness of the beauty of Allah's creation and allow them to appreciate all the benefits that nature can offer. We also worked on some team building activities there.

Décès

Ahmad Dusoye, Bsc Mechanical Engineering and MSc Aeronautical Engineer.

As a Student in 70's he has to work and pay for his tuition and other expenses. While he was studying his Mechanic Engineering, he became an active member of Muslim Cultural Society and was a volunteer in the Weekend's Madrassa. He modernised the Islamic teaching syllabus and encouraged those who completed their Islamic studies to be a volunteer's teacher. The system works very well and many Engineers, IT Specialist, Pharmacist and other Professional were also Madrassa teachers which Ahmad has Established. During a Conference of FOSIS ,Br. Mosadeq Shahebdin met with Ahmad Dusoye and a Collaboration was established and Ahmad founded Muslim Students Islamic Association (UK) with Saad Diljore, the Kathrada twin brothers, and others. The MSIA became the partner of SIM in UK and they participated in many SIM projects by donating money for an Islamic Press. They also welcome new Mauritian Students or anyone recommended by SIM .After Ahmad Dusoye completed his Degree, he could have chosen the Airlines Industry, however he decided the Education Field, by joining Edexcel to form future Engineers and later he became the Project Manager with his MBA in Project Management with Peasons Education when they bought Edexcel.

As an active Daee, Ahmad brought his Project Management skills to Islamic work and Projects. He was very much an avant-garde in his perception and methods of work. As a Project Manager he was in charge of Projects that cost millions and it was his responsibility to deliver and his responsibility to explain any failure to deliver, however, he told me that in Islamic Organisation, we spend millions in Projects and when we fail we are not answerable to anyone.

He was a very active member of ISB Luton and with the help of Brother Jaffar have successfully established Radio Ramadan.
